Week 1

Why is learning an important part of Heavenly Father's plan?

One of the main reasons Heavenly Father sent us to earth was to give us experiences that would help us learn and become more like Him. If we are obedient and teachable, He will help us learn what we need to know, line upon line, throughout our lives. Heavenly Father expects us to use the knowledge we gain to bless others and build His kingdom.

Week 2

Why is teaching the gospel important in the plan of salvation?

In order to fulfill the purposes of the plan of happiness, Heavenly Father's children need to learn about the gospel. For this reason, God needs each of us to teach the gospel to our families, to other members of the Church, and to those who haven't received the gospel.

Week 3

What is the role of agency in learning the gospel?

Heavenly Father created us as agents who act, not as objects that are acted upon (see 2 Nephi 2:26). This principle applies to all aspects of our mortal lives, including our efforts to learn the gospel. We each must learn the gospel for ourselves—no one can learn it for us. Learning the gospel is meant to be an active experience, not a passive one. When we exercise our agency to diligently seek truth, the Lord blesses us with increased light and knowledge.

Week 4

How can I help others participate in learning?

We are all responsible for learning the doctrines of the gospel through our own diligent efforts.

As gospel teachers, we can help those we teach take responsibility for their own learning.

We can awaken a desire in others to study, understand, and live the gospel. We are most successful as teachers when we help those we teach discover gospel principles for themselves and draw their strength from God.
