

For the Strength of the Youth Game Put on Your Armor Today!

Rules: Each team is given a FSOTY Pamphlet (depending on the size of the group, you could give each team multiple pamphlets...also depending if you decide you'll let team members help) and a set of scriptures. One player from each team comes forward and is asked a question. The player to first find the answer to the question and the page/section is allowed to choose one game piece from a bag (again, you may allow this to be a team effort). As stated in the rules from 'Finch Family Fun', if the team already has the piece of armor, the piece is put back and the game continues with the next player. Also beware of the "Lose 1 Turn" and "Lose 1 Piece of Armor" game pieces! The first team to get all of the armor pieces on the girl wins!
