Younger Possible 1
Jesus wants me to serve others.
Possible Activity ‘A’

- Use the picture in this week’s outline in Come, Follow Me—For Individuals and Families to help tell the story in John 13:1–17.
- Invite the children to point out details from the story that are in the pictures.
Jesus wants me to serve others. Possible Activity ‘B’

► Show pictures of Jesus serving others (see the Gospel Art Book or Church magazines for ideas).

► Let the children take turns holding the pictures as you tell the stories depicted (let them help tell the stories if they can).
Jesus wants me to serve others.
Possible Activity ‘C’

- Ask the children how they feel when someone helps them.
- Let the children draw pictures of how they can follow Jesus’s example by serving someone.
Younger Possible 2
I show my love for Jesus Christ by keeping His commandments.

Possible Activity ‘A’

- Give each child a paper heart to decorate.
- Invite them to hold up their hearts every time they sing the word “love” in “Jesus Said Love Everyone” and “Love One Another,” Children’s Songbook, 61, 136.
I show my love for Jesus Christ by keeping His commandments. Possible Activity ‘B’

- Help the children memorize John 14:15 by holding up their paper hearts as they say, “If ye love me,” and a picture of stone tablets as they say, “Keep my commandments.”
I show my love for Jesus Christ by keeping His commandments.

Possible Activity ‘C’

- Invite the children to take turns acting out a kind action they could do for someone to show their love for Jesus.
- Have the rest of the children guess what they are doing.
I show my love for Jesus Christ by keeping His commandments.
Possible Activity ‘D’

Complete this week’s activity page with the children.
Younger Possible 3
I can build on a strong foundation by following Jesus.

Possible Activity ‘A’

► Show the picture The Last Supper (Gospel Art Book, no. 54).

► Explain to the children that at the Last Supper, Jesus taught His disciples about the Holy Ghost.
I can build on a strong foundation by following Jesus.

Possible Activity ‘B’

- Invite the children to put their hands on their hearts and on their heads.

- Open the scriptures to Doctrine and Covenants 8:2, and explain that the Holy Ghost can speak to us “in [our] mind and in [our] heart,” or through our thoughts and feelings.
I can build on a strong foundation by following Jesus. Possible Activity ‘C’

- Turn out the lights and hold up a picture.
- Then shine a flashlight on the picture.
- Ask the children how the flashlight is like the Holy Ghost.
I can build on a strong foundation by following Jesus.

Possible Activity ‘D’

- Together with the children, sing “The Holy Ghost,” Children’s Songbook, 105, in a “still small voice.” Invite them to listen for things that the Holy Ghost does.
Older Possible 1
I show my love for Jesus Christ by keeping His commandments.
- Possible Activity ‘A’

- One way to do this is to sing “Love One Another,” Children’s Songbook, 136–37, and help the children learn actions to go with it.
I show my love for Jesus Christ by keeping His commandments.
- Possible Activity ‘B’

► Invite the children to write on the board ways Jesus has shown He loves us.

► You might show pictures from the Savior’s life to help them (for ideas, see the Gospel Art Book).

► How can we show love for others as He did?

► Invite each child to stand and share one way he or she will “love one another” (John 13:34).
I show my love for Jesus Christ by keeping His commandments.

- Possible Activity ‘C’
  - Invite a child to read John 14:15.
  - Let the children take turns drawing pictures that represent someone keeping a commandment, while the rest of the children guess what he or she is drawing.
  - For examples of commandments, see For the Strength of Youth.
  - How does keeping these commandments show the Savior that we love Him?
Older Possible 2
The Holy Ghost guides, comforts, and testifies of truth.

Possible Activity ‘A’

- Give the children the following verses to read in pairs: John 14:26; 15:26; and 16:13.
- Ask them to find words that teach them what the Holy Ghost does.
- Write the words on the board.
Heavenly Father will hear and answer me when I pray.
Possible Activity ‘B’

▶ Share an experience when the Holy Ghost guided you, comforted you, warned you, or testified of truth to you.
▶ Invite the children to share any experiences they have had with the Holy Ghost.
▶ How did they recognize the Holy Ghost’s influence?
Heavenly Father will hear and answer me when I pray.

Possible Activity ‘C’

► Invite each child to draw his or her face on a paper bag.

► Shine a flashlight, representing the Holy Ghost, into the bags.

► Then put things in the bags that block the light, such as a scarf or tissues, to teach that our wrong choices can limit the influence of the Holy Ghost in our lives.

► Let the children remove the scarf or tissues from their bags to represent repentance.
Older Possible 3
Heavenly Father and Jesus want me to know Them.

Possible Activity ‘A’

- Display a plant as the children take turns reading verses in John 15:1–8.
- How is Jesus like a vine?
- How are we like branches?
- What can we do to stay close to the Savior?
Heavenly Father and Jesus want me to know Them.
Possible Activity ‘B’

- Read aloud John 17:3.
- Ask the children what they are doing to know Heavenly Father and Jesus Christ.
- Share how you are coming to know Them.
