

Thanksgiving Thankful Countdown

GATHER:

- 1 Glass jar – Tie a bow around the jar to make it fun!
- 26 Scrolls – Cut out each of the thankful countdown ideas below cutting them in strips. Roll them up and tie with a ribbon.

DIRECTIONS:

1. Place all Scrolls in Jar
2. Every day draw out one scroll and do what it says

Be prepared to have a Thankful Thanksgiving this year as each day you show gratitude for something in your life!

Let's cultivate an Attitude of Gratitude!

I am Thankful for My Family!

Play a game together,
inside or outside!

(board game, hike, chalk art, etc.)

I am Thankful for Pies!

Make some Pumpkin
Pies to deliver to anyone!

I am Thankful for Grandparents!

Call and tell them

"I love you"

"I am grateful for you"!

I am Thankful for Prayer!

Say a prayer only using the words

"I thank thee for"

& don't ask for anything.

I am Thankful for Computers!

Send an e-mail to someone you love,
and a photo!

I am thankful for my toys!

Give some of your toys
to Goodwill to give to other kids.

I AM THANKFUL FOR MY TEACHERS!

Make a plate of cookies
and/or a card for your piano primary, or school teacher.

I am Thankful for our Car!

Clean out the car,
and go get ice-cream
cones in it!

I am Thankful for the Scriptures!

Have a FHE on a favorite scripture story – memorize a scripture!

I am Thankful for Sisters!

Do something nice
for her!

(make her bed, do her job,
play a game with her, etc.)

I am Thankful for Food!

Go to the store &
pick out a food that you haven't tried yet!

I am thankful for our Kitchen!

Bake Something Fun
Together in the kitchen!

I am thankful for Turkeys!

Art Project:
Make paper Turkeys

I am Thankful for Neighbors!

Do a secret service
for your neighbor!
(rake leaves, pull weeds,
leave a treat, etc.)

I am Thankful for my Heavenly Father

Write in your journal & say a prayer expressing your love & gratitude!

I am Thankful for my Cousins!

Call or write a letter
to one of your cousins!

I am thankful for my Ears!

Close your eyes &
listen to music!
Play some music.
Enjoy it all day!

I AM THANKFUL FOR MY DAD!

Do something nice for Dad!

(run give him a hug when he comes home from work,
write him a note, shine his shoes, clean his closet, organize the garage etc.)

I am Thankful for my Hands!

Art Project:
Finger painting,
or drawing

I am Thankful for my Eyes!

Watch a special movie with your family!

I am Thankful for my Brother!

Do something nice
for your brother!

(make his bed, do his job,
play a game with him)

I am Thankful
For my Legs!

Go outside - run &
jump or ride your bike!

I am Thankful for my Mom!

Do something nice
for mom!

(write her a note,
good chocolate, cook and
clean up dinner, do the laundry, clean any room, etc.)

I am Thankful for Books!

Go to the library and pick out some Thanksgiving books!

I am Thankful For the Seasons!

Go on a walk,
enjoy nature,
the colors, etc..

I am Thankful for My Teeth!

Give Mom & Dad
some Halloween
Candy & brush & Floss.

I AM THANKFUL FOR A PROPHET!

Read a conference talk or article in the church magazines by him!

I AM THANKFUL FOR MY HOME!

Clean out a hall, bedroom or upstairs closet together
– play music and have fun!!

You could use the pictures below for jar labels if you wish:

This would be a cute tag on the Pumpkin pies you give away:

