She kneels down and prays, opens her scriptures, and reads. Then, it suddenly dawns on her!

“Why won’t your house cave in?!”

He tries to come around back and can’t find a way in.

“I’ll just climb down the chimney!” He falls down the chimney, and the little pigs giggle, and tie him up.

Narrator: Sis. Harwood

And the wolf went to prison forever more, and the first and second little pigs learned to build their house of better things.

This year’s theme is “Stand ye in holy places and be not moved.” Standing in holy places can mean many things. Some have said it means going to the temple, and to church, and avoiding unholy places, like night clubs and bars. These things are all true, but standing in holy places can mean more than that.

We each have a gift given to us when we are baptized, called the gift of the Holy Ghost. This is the right to have his companionship as long as we are doing good things. We need to invite Him to be with us every day, by starting the day with prayer, and praying throughout the day, and always finding time to read the scriptures. His companionship will make our home holy places to be in, but we will also be protected when we leave. Then, when we are at school or other places, we will have Him to help us make each place holy wherever we stand. He will also help us to avoid bad places and situations. Stand ye in holy places and be not moved, can sound like an intimidating commandment, but really it’s simple. It comes down to little decisions, like reading our scriptures, praying, and listening to the Holy Ghost every day. As each of us do these things, just like the wolf, Satan will be bound forever.

1 Ne. 22:26 And because of the righteousness of his people, Satan has no power; wherefore, he cannot be loosed for the space of many years; for he hath no power over the hearts of the people, for they dwell in righteousness, and the Holy One of Israel reigneth.

In the name of Jesus Christ, amen.
